

The Banff World Television Festival releases Nordicity Group Green Paper on the future of television in Canada

OTTAWA — June 9, 2006 — The Banff World Television Festival today released a Green Paper entitled The Future of Television in Canada. Nordicity Group has prepared the Green Paper for a Town Hall meeting on the Future of Television in Canada, to be held at the Banff World Television Festival on Wednesday, June 14, 2006. A copy of the Green Paper is available on the Banff World Television Festival Website: www.banff2006.com. An executive summary of the Green Paper is also available at the same link.

“The findings of this Green Paper will definitely get our delegates talking. We must consolidate our current thinking in the industry and develop a way to improve our current funding system,” said Robert Montgomery, CEO of The Banff World Television Festival. “I am pleased to offer this report as a way to bring realistic solutions to government regulators and policy makers.”

The Banff World Television Festival takes place June 11–14 amid the spectacular Canadian Rockies at the Fairmont Banff Springs in Banff, Alberta. The Festival owned by the Banff Television Festival Foundation, is produced by Achilles Media Ltd. in conjunction with the Foundation’s Board of Directors and Board of Governors.

Nordicity Group Ltd. (www.nordicity.com) helps businesses make strategic decisions; we also address regulatory and government policy issues for firms, consortia, and industry associations. Our consultants provide clients with strategic planning, business case analysis, market assessment and forecasting, economic analysis, financial modelling, evaluation frameworks, and other tools for strategic and operational decision making.

#####

For more information:

Peter Lyman, +1 416 569 0891, plyman@nordicity.com

For more information on Nordicity Group Ltd.:

<http://www.nordicity.com>